

David Burigana. Current Position: Associate Professor in History of International Relations (2015) and chair in History of International Organisation. Career: Researcher and Lecturer in History of International Relations (2011); Assistant Professor of History of International Organisation (2011). Master (1997) in Contemporary History (La Sorbonne-Paris IV), with G.H.Soutou; PhD in History of International Relations (Univ. of Florence) on Soviet Russia as strategic problem for Paris, London, and Rome (1930-39) (2002), supervision A. Varsori; Director of PhD School E. Di Nolfo; several Italian and foreign mobility grants (2002-04); Prix "Gorbachev" (2004), post-Doctoral Fellowship on the Eurocorps (2005) in Institut des Hautes Etudes Européennes (Strasbourg), supervision S. Schirmann ; Visiting Professor, Toulouse-Le Mirail (2010) on the territorialisation of aircraft cooperation in Europe; post-Doctoral fellowship (2004-06) on armaments cooperation in Europe since the 1950s, and Research Fellow (2007-11) on aircraft cooperation/competition and technology as a key factor in foreign policy in Padua, supervision A.Varsori; member of the Centro Interuniversitario di Ricerche e Studi storico-militari (CIRSM) directed by N.Labanca (Univ. of Siena) where he is the representative of Padua named by the President of University (2013), of the Centre d'étude d'histoire de l'Europe contemporaine (Univ. Catholique de Louvain-la-Neuve) directed by M.Dumoulin, today by P.Tilly; member of the Association internationale d'histoire contemporaine de l'Europe, co-founder of SISI (Società Italiana di Storia Internazionale) and Secretary and Treasurer (2012), Administrator of SiSi website (2012). He is the responsible, named by the President of University, for a Memorandum of Understanding of University of Padua with the Maison des Sciences de l'Homme d'Aquitaine Bordeaux (2013); and for Erasmus program with Bordeaux III (Department of History) since the a. y. 2013-14; Paris I La Sorbonne and the Institut of Sciences Politiques de Paris since the a.y. 2015-16. He is member, named by the President of University (2013), of the Directive Committee of CISAS Centro di Studi e Attività Aerospaziali "Giuseppe Colombo" of University of Padua. He is member, named by the President of University (2012), of the Commission on the First World War of University of Padua. He is member of the European scientific committee of the Euroclio collection published by PIE-Peter Lang (Brussels/Berne), and of the Editor Committee of Italian journal of political history XXI Secolo.

He participated in Italy in COFIN (2022-04), and PRIN (2006-08) and (2011-13); in France in ANR (2011) CREALU with a specific research on the history of aluminum and aircraft co-production, and LABEX (2012) in the section on «Construire l'Europe matérielle»; in Europe in VII FP project, «ICaTSEM: Institutional Changes and Trajectories of Socio-Economic development Models», Grant agreement n. 225349, with colleagues of the Department of Economics of Padua on a research on the history of electronics in Europe. He is P.I. of a PRAT (Project financed by University of Padua) on «Ex post Italy. Experts and politics on Science and Technology in Italy: a problem of democratic legitimacy and international reliability?». Convenor: «Les trajectoires de l'innovation technologique et la construction européenne» (Padua June 2008), published Peter-Lang (2010); «La coopération aéronautique en Europe» (Paris June 2009), published as a special issue of Histoire, Economie & Société (n° 4, 2010); «Technological cooperation/competition: a key factor in International history? A debate on the interplay at transnational level between 'experts' & political decision-makers» (Padua May 2012); «Technology, a key factor at transnational, international, global level? 'Experts', political decision-makers and technological and scientific innovation on a long term perspective» (Padua June 2012); «Négocier la première mondialisation. Diplomates, experts et invention d'une 'diplomatie technique' au xix<sup>e</sup> siècle» (Paris May 2013); «Studiare e raccontare il XX secolo e la guerra in Italia» (Padua June 2014); «Non solo diplomazia. Esperti e politici in scienza e tecnologia nella politica estera italiana fra guerra fredda e costruzione europea» (Padua, December 2015).

Author of articles and papers at national and international conferences on armaments and aeronautical cooperation in Europe, and Air transport since the 1950s, operational aspects of European Defence, interaction between civil and military production, as well as on historiography on International History on techno-sciences and foreign policy; he visited private and State archives in Belgium, France, England, Italy, Spain and USA.